

QHSE Policy

The QHSE policy of SDK Shipping A/S is regularly reviewed to ensure compliance with applicable legislation and stakeholders. Changes in SDK Shipping A/S's QHSE policy are approved and communicated by the CEO.

Health and safety:

SDK Shipping A/S takes the responsibility for health and safety extremely seriously and understands the importance of always ensuring, that all services and activities performed by SDK Shipping A/S, its business partners and subcontractors are always carried out under fully justifiable conditions.

SDK Shipping A/S is committed to ensure that the company is a workplace free from accidents, and at the same time demanding that all employees with SDK Shipping A/S, their business partners and subcontractors engage in active commitment and take responsibility for the health and safety area.

We promote a "Safety First" culture and strive at all times to safeguard against loss at our workplace of both personal and material character. We improve the health and safety of our employees through actively working on preventing accidents and work-related illness.

All managers are responsible for the safety of the operations they oversee, and must ensure the content, minimum standards, security procedures and regulatory requirements of this policy are communicated, understood, complied with and enforced.

All employees and suppliers are expected to act safely in all respects to ensure their own, other colleagues, business partners and subcontractors health and safety at the workplace. A positive and proactive attitude to safety shown by all employees and suppliers is of crucial importance for success in relation to goal achievement.

Quality:

In order to ensure compliance with legislation and stakeholders the quality management system of SDK Shipping is reviewed on a regular basis, thus the company's needs are supported by the management system at all times.

SDK Shipping A/S will maintain a good image and reputation as a recognized and responsible company, performing quality work, good customer care and service.

SDK Shipping A/S will strengthen the employees' attitude towards quality and quality work through day-to-day management and relevant information thus ensuring the development that our ability results in our performance continuously improving the quality and the services we provide to our customers in the future.

Through management evaluation SDK Shipping A/S is committed to continuously developing and improving quality and efficiency as well as to ensure continued consistency in the delivery of the company's services, ensuring services are delivered within the agreed deadlines, at the agreed price/calculation and in accordance with other agreed terms.

Environment:

SDK Shipping A/S wants to demonstrate awareness and responsibility towards our customers and stakeholders in our effort to implementing the environmental efforts. We are happy to engage in dialogue with our customers and other stakeholders.

SDK Shipping A/S commits to comply with applicable legislation, and to follow the development in the environment area and aims to choose sustainable solutions in all our activities in relation the environmental impact.

Shipping Companies
April 2023

Lars Jespersen

CEO